

Facilitating Listening Circles

Train your staff in restorative listening – a much-needed skill in modern culture. Listening can open people of differing values and opinions to appreciating other points of view.

Facilitation training can benefit

- 1. Learn the qualities of effective listening and facilitation.
- 2. Build interpersonal connections through mutual respect.
- 3. Multiple sessions provide various processes that can be replicated in your organization.
- 4. Traumatic events can be processed in structured setting.

Examples of topics addressed:

- a. COVID
- b. Political divisions
- c. Clergy abuse
- d. Natural disasters

This training is delivered in two segments, and further support is available for difficult issues. Contact us to discuss your needs: info@restorationmatters.org